circumstances under which it is made, not misleading, including the matters or facts set forth in subparagraph one above or other untrue statements or omissions of similar purport and object.

3. engaging in any transaction, practice or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any purchaser of the aforementioned securities in connection with the matters described in subparagraph one above or engaging in any other practice or course of business of similar purport and object.

II

12

14

15

19

23

26

On December 30, 1975 this Court entered its first amended order appointing receiver wherein on page 25 (lines 10 through 15) it retained jurisdiction to implement and carry out the terms of its decree and of all additional decrees or orders appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and to grant such other and further relief as may be required at law or in equity as requested by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"). The Commission and the defendants Robert H. Fendler, Lincoln Thrift Association, U.S. Thrift Association, and the subsidiaries and affiliates having filed with this Court their stipulation to consent to final judgment:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that this Court shall appoint independent boards of trustees for each of Lincoln Thrift Association and U.S. Thrift Association, and the subsidiaries and affiliates, (hereinafter sometimes referred to as "the companies), none of whom shall previously have served as a member of the board of directors of any of the companies.

-5-